music | dance | theatre | art exhibitions
2018 Montgomery College Arts Institute

Dear Friends of Montgomery College Arts,

As we begin a new academic year, there is anticipation in the air at Montgomery College. On all three of our campuses there are exciting plans and preparations being made. Of course, we have our usual schedule of extensive class offerings in virtually every area of the arts.

In addition, we will also continue to offer our high-quality programming in visual and performing arts, which showcases both student and professional work in music, theatre, dance, media arts, and the fine arts. The combination of those excellent courses and these outstanding events will help us to serve the MC students, patrons, and community.

Highlights of the fall season include student theatre productions of Hair and Nathan the Wise on the Rockville Campus and The Glass Menagerie at the Takoma Park/Silver Spring Campus. And, djembe drummer and world music artist Amadou Kouyate returns to the Rockville Campus. Art exhibitions include Lauren Bulbin and Allyson Packer at Rockville in the Media Arts and Silberman Galleries and Alex Braden at the King Street Gallery in Takoma Park/Silver Spring. Look for these and many other exciting events in this semester's brochure.

Please do join us for the exciting theatre and dance performances, the wonderful music recitals and concerts, and the outstanding exhibits on all three campuses.

In addition to a full complement of classes for credit, please don't forget to check out our noncredit course offerings in every discipline through our Community Arts program at montgomerycollege.edu/communityarts. Remember, there is something for everyone in the arts programs at Montgomery College.

I hope you consider enrolling in a class and/or attending an event on campus very soon. See you at a show!

Dean for the Visual, Performing, and Media Arts
